JONNI FITZGERALD

COSTUME DESIGNER / jonnifitzgerald.com

Jonni is a hugely experienced Costume Designer & Stylist working on high end Commercials, Music Promos and Award-Winning Films.

Jonni designed the short film Fighter directed by Buggy Steel which won the Jury Award at London Calling BFI London Film Festival 2017. He also designed Cla'am, directed by Nathaniel Martello-White which won Best UK Short Film at Raindance Festival 2017.

Jonni has an excellent reputation for his eye for detail, adaptability and has his finger on the pulse of new fashion trends. He approaches each project with in-depth research, detailed boards and a positive attitude which has seen repeat work with the industry's most recognised directors and celebrities. Previous celebrity clients include Maisie Williams, Charlie Sheen, Sean Bean, Lewis Hamilton and many more.

Jonni loves to collaborate with directors on progressive projects, giving visibility to diverse or marginalised voices. Recent collaborations include Starbucks 'Every name's a Story' directed by Nicolas Jack Davies which won Bronze for Positive Change and Gold for Best Direction at the Creative Circle Awards, as well as Pencil at the D&AD Awards 2020.
